Saturday Keynote Speaker

Don Aslett, an Idaho born and raised farm boy, organized a "cleaning company" to earn his way through college. His company, Varsity Contractors, Inc., became so successful that even after graduation he stayed in cleaning. Now Varsity is one of the nation's leading companies in the Total Facility Services industry, over 150 million in sales. Don began teaching and writing about cleaning efficiency in the mid-70s and in 1980 wrote his first book, Is There Life After Housework? Don is firmly established as the America's #1 Cleaning Expert.

Don has given thousands of keynote speeches, seminars, and presentations that are inspiring as well as entertaining. Don's most popular topics are not just cleaning, but organization and self-improvement. For businesses, organizations, schools, and youth groups, Don is a sought-after keynote speaker and is a main show attraction at home and garden shows. Clients include: Bell/GTE Telephone, AmX, Procter and Gamble, US Navy, McDonald Douglas, AT&T, Kodak, Rubbermaid.

What he has done:

- Produced 30+ books for national publishers including: Adams Media, New American Library, Andrews and McMeel, Dell, Writer's Digest, and Simon & Schuster
- Delivered over 8,000 speeches and presentations
- Thousands of TV, radio, newspaper and magazine interviews, becoming one of the nation's most sought-after guests
